Anton Dukart, Jr.

March 22, 1946 - March 29, 2015

Anton Dukart, Jr., age 69, of Glendive, Montana passed away on Sunday, March 29, 2015 at the Billings Clinic in Billings, Montana after struggling several years with heart disease and COPD. Visitation will be held from 5:00 P.M. until 8:00 P.M. on Wednesday, April 1, 2015 at the Silha Funeral Home in Glendive and from 10:00 A.M. until 12:00 P.M. on Thursday, April 2, 2015 at the Silha Funeral Home. A Prayer Service will be held at 7:00 P.M. on Wednesday, April 1, 2015 at the Silha Funeral Home in Glendive. A Funeral Service with military honors will be held at 2:00 P.M. on Thursday, April 2, 2015 at the Our Savior Lutheran Church in Glendive with Pastor Greg Lucido officiating. Silha Funeral Home of Glendive has been entrusted with the arrangements.

Jr. was born on March 22, 1946 to Anton and Eva Dukart on the family farm, six miles north of Killdeer, North Dakota. In 1952, the family moved west of Manning where he attended rural schools until moving to Fallon in 1955. He finished the rest of his school years in Fallon, Montana and then Terry, Montana.

In 1964, he joined the United States Navy and served in the Vietnam War. He was honorably discharged in 1967. Upon returning home from military service he married Charla Siegle on October 28, 1967, and to this union two sons were born, Shawn was born on March 22, 1968 and Shane was born on February 2, 1971. Jr. and Char raised their two boys on their farm, seventeen miles West of Glendive. He spent many years helping his father at his butcher shop in Fallon. Following his father's passing, Jr. carried on the tradition of making German and liver sausage and headcheese.

Jr. enjoyed fishing, working Sudoku puzzles, watching old western movies, reading Louis Lamor books and watching Judge Judy at 3:00 P.M. every afternoon. He was always willing to give the neighbors a helping hand whenever needed. Jr's. most treasured role was spending time with his three grandchildren and being called Papa.

He was preceded in death by his parents; brother, Jim; sisters, Kit Hansen and Irene Detienne and his faithful dog, Holly.

He is survived by his wife of forty-eight years, Char; his two sons, Shawn and his daughter, Teryn of Fresno, California and Shane (Beth) and their children Gavin and Alexis of Fallon; two brothers, Dan (Shirley) and Bobby both of Fallon and sister, Betsy Hoffer of Glendive.

Should friends desire, memorial donations can be made to "Save Our Pool" fund in Terry or to the Fallon Village Council; for the Fallon Park upkeep and to help purchase new playground equipment.

I am so sorry for all the suffering he had and now his passing. There was always something going on when he was in the butcher shop. People used to come and go all the time and we never knew how many would show up for lunch. He often made things I would never eat and then I heard about it! Those were good times though. He was a good man. Please accept my sympathy and I pray for comfort for you all. Linda Dukart
