“ "Mrs. M" was just such a classy lady and what a role-model for her students! She instilled in me her perfectionist manner and eye for detail in all my cooking, sewing and quilting skills. She was my teacher and so much more, as I also served as her aide for a couple of years during my high school journey. There was no other option for me than to register for four years of Home Ec at DCHS. She has come to mind so many times over my life and I am very grateful for her guidance both as a student and later in life when her teachings steered me.

“ To Win's family and special friends in Glendive,
I am so sorry to hear of her passing. I have known her since the 1950's when she and Dick lived in the downstairs apartment in our house. They were both exceptional members of the education community in Glendive and more importantly, fine and generous people. A lovely lady who will be sorely missed. Rest in Peace

“ Win, you were my favorite teacher, my mentor and my inspiration. You made teaching look fun and so rewarding. You introduced me to fine woolens like Pendleton and nurtured my love of sewing. You were never too busy to help and there was always a smile and kindness. I love you and want to thank you for the thousand memories and laughs we have shared. You are special and one of God's angels now.

“ I was never her star pupil which my classmates and mother could attest too! I always had allot of fun in her class but seemed to be in trouble over flour fights and jokes in class. I was so happy when I went to see her in 2018 and told her how so many things she taught us was valuable later in life. We had a wonderful visit and she will always be thought of as a wonderful teacher, and support to the Glendive community.

“ Win was my great home ec teacher in Glendive in 1959 & 1960. We went to an FHA convention In Bozeman in 1959 and she was such a good sport when we talked the Bozeman girls into short-sheeting her bed. We loved her from then on! I still use her pie crust recipe! God bless you,Win, go straight to heaven! Sincerely Kay Wynne

“ Mrs. McMullin was my favorite teacher! She helped me so much in Home Ec class. I had purchased some very difficult plaid wool fabric and was determined to make a blazer. Matching the plaid was next to impossible but with her help it happened! My Aunt used to take her cream and we would ride along to see her. RIP sweet lady.

“ Mrs. McMullin was my favorite teacher in high school. Years later when I worked at DCHS she insisted I call her Win. I couldn't do it, I felt so disrespectful. I have many fond memories of her as a teacher. Back then we had summer projects and she came out to my home to see it and Mr. McMullin I had as a biology teacher in college. Both wonderful educators who cared about the youth.

“ I was fortunate to know Win for the past 9 years.... we had some great conversations, I so enjoyed visiting with her on many topics; I loved to hear about her years of teaching, she took so much pride in her years in education, and it always amazed me that she could so vividly remember projects that she helped her students bring to completion. We enthusiastically talked sports, her love for baseball and the trips she and Dick took to Spring Training in Florida which inspired my husband and I to do just that this year. A wealth of knowledge, a heart of gold, a great and loyal servant.... I can only imagine the reunion happening right now. You will be missed but rest in peace, Win. ♡

“ Mrs McMullin was my Home Ec teacher as well as my FHA advisor. She wa a wonderful teacher. I will never forget she told "Arlene I know your mother taught you to sew you can do this, but when we started cooking that was different. She says now you have no problem doing this that's when she found out that was my passion an had been since I was seven years of age." She never said a word otherwise. Mrs McMillian I was making mistakes on purpose because I hated sewing. You have earned those wing Ma'am so soar and soar high. My deepest sympathy .

“ "Chop Chop Gang" ...I am guessing if you ever had Mrs. McMullin for your home ec teacher at DCHS - you may have heard that a time two. Mrs. McMullin was a well loved teacher by many, I am guessing that some of us may have been responsible for some of that beautiful grey hair she sported for years. Thoughts and prayers to her family and friends. RIP Mrs. Mic !

“ Win was my Home Ec teacher at DCHS in the 1960s. She demanded the best from all of us. A great woman. Later I was privileged to teach with her and there again I found a co-worker and friend. She and Dick were historic in the education community and much loved by all their students. God bless their memory among us.
