

Agnes Cecelia Job

January 21, 1937 - April 12, 2021

Agnes C. Job, 84, of Wibaux, Montana went with Jesus on Monday, April 12, 2021.

Agnes was born on January 21, 1937 in Dickinson, North Dakota to Joseph and Eugenia (Selinger) Olheiser. She grew up on a farm four miles NW of Scheffield, ND and attended grade school at St. Pius in Scheffield; high school at Sacred Heart High in Miles City, MT; Presentation School of Nursing in Aberdeen, SD and Presentation School of Nursing in Miles City.

Agnes married Norbert P. Job at St. Pius Catholic Church in Scheffield, in 1956. After they married, they moved to the family farm one mile SW of Wibaux. In 1973, the family moved into a new house on the farm. The house was her pride and joy, as she had designed every corner and cubby hole over a three year period.

Agnes was involved in the St. Peter's Catholic Church after moving to Wibaux. She was part of the St. Peter's Choir for over fifty years and most of that as the leader. Agnes was a member of the St. Peter's Altar Society, the Wibaux Historical Society and the Prairie Arts Club as the treasurer. Norbert and Agnes purchased and ran the Wibaux Drug from June 1975 to 1989. After that Agnes worked at the Pierre Wibaux Museum, the Wibaux Visitor Center (where she loved visiting with the travelers and sharing Montana History), and the Wibaux Pioneer-Gazette. During her time at the Wibaux Pioneer-Gazette, Agnes worked on putting together a set of Obituary Books with all the obits that had been published in the Wibaux Pioneer-Gazette. These books were donated to the Wibaux Library with hopes that others can make good use of them when doing their Genealogies. Agnes also enjoyed working on the Job Genealogy, puzzles, word puzzles, and loved reading books. You would come home many times to find her curled up and reading a good book.

Agnes is survived by her children, Gerald Job of Wibaux, MT; Phyllis (Daryl) Wandler of Dickinson, ND; Mark (Tammie) Job of Wibaux, MT; Paula (Steve) Blohm of Franktown, CO; Mike (Anita) Job of Hopatcong, NJ; Norma Job of Baker City, OR; Steve Job of Golden, CO and Carol Job of Loveland, CO; two grandchildren, Anthony Blohm and Jessica Blohm; step-grandchildren; two brothers, Nick Olheiser of Dickinson, ND and Leo (Jeanette) Olheiser of Dickinson, ND; a sister, Veronica Messer of Minnesota and a sister-in-law, Katherine Hirsch and many nieces and nephews.

Agnes was preceded in death by her parents; husband, Norbert; infant son, Gerald Mark and daughter, Francine; her brothers, Adam, Michael, and John; her sisters, Anna, Pauline, Oillia, and Rose.

Rosary will be held at 7:00 PM on Sunday, April 18, 2021 at St. Peter's Catholic Church in Wibaux, A Mass of Christian Burial will be held at 10:00 on Monday, April 19, 2021 at St. Peter's Catholic Church with Father Joseph Ponessa officiating. In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made in Agnes's name to the St. Peter's Alter Society or a charity of your choice. Silha Funeral Home of Wibaux has been entrusted with the arrangements. Remembrances and condolences may be shared with the family at: www.silhafuneralhomes.com.

“ Aunt Aggie always impressed me with her strength- hauling full milk cans with one arm and carrying a kid in the other. She always seemed so patient with a slew of little kids running around the house. And I remember being in the kitchen with her and Uncle Norb and recognizing the look love that passed between them. And I'll always remember a visit to Wibaux when I was 28 and I hadn't been there for 10 years and Aunt Aggie and I spent a couple hours drinking beer in one of the bars and talking and I realized how easy she was to talk to. I'll never forget her.

“ I have nothing but good memories of Aggie- many summer days on the farm, seeing her amazing strength as she would haul around full milk cans with one arm and a baby in the other. She always seemed so patient with little kids by running around the house. I remember sitting at the kitchen table with Aunt Aggie and Uncle Norb and, even as a kid, seeing and understanding a look of love that passed between them. And I remember an afternoon when I was in my late twenties, the first time I had been back to Wibaux in many years, when we spent a couple hours in one of the bars drinking beer and talking, and I realized how much I still admired this woman and felt privileged that she had been in my life. Rest In Peace, Aunt Aggie. You were much loved.

“ Aggie & I kept in touch for so many years I will miss her Christmas letters . One of my best memories I have was when we stopped to see her on one of our trips to Dickinson & she was baking up a storm, she had cinnamon rolls all over the kitchen. We even got to have one. Heaven has gained another angel. Rose Pachi

“ Carol and Family,

Your Mom will be missed deeply but she is running free, running in the embrace of Jesus! And your Dad as well. She is at peace. She was a very special lady and a mom to me as well. Praying you find comfort in the Lord. Love Rick, Cindy and Lanna Aaser
