Agnes was born on July 15, 1927 in Glendive, a daughter of Frank Sr. and Katherine (Wetch) Geiger. She was raised and educated in rural Bloomfield, Montana and attended the Morgan Creek School and later went to Dawson County High School. After her education she worked at Woolworths and stayed busy taking care of her parents. She later met Jack Reeves and they were married on March 2, 1954 in Glendive, and to this union two children were born. Shortly after their marriage Agnes and Jack moved to Jack's parent's farm near Lindsay, Montana to farm and raise their family. They remained on the farm until 1989 when they moved to Glendive due to Jack's health and she had remained in Glendive ever since.

Agnes loved playing cards, shopping, and she also had a big heart for animals. She also enjoyed socializing with friends and family. Agnes loved her family deeply and they always came first. She had a very close relationship with her sister Eleanor, with whom she shared a special bond.

Agnes will always be remembered for her great sense of humor and she will be greatly missed by all of her family and friends. She had a strong faith and was a devout catholic for her entire life.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Frank Sr. and Katherine; her husband, Jack; siblings, Barbara Volk, Bill Geiger, Johnny Geiger, Kathryn Reisenauer, Frank Geiger, Jr., Pius Geiger, and Eleanor McLeod, and numerous in-laws, cousins, and family members.

Agnes is survived by her two children, Jacque (Dennis) LeDoux of Glendive and Tom (Nancy) Reeves of Glendive; and numerous nieces, nephews, and cousins.

“ *My heartfelt sympathy to Agnes's family and loved ones in this loss!
Agnes was one of my all- time favorites when I worked at the Hair Station! We always had such good visits and lots of laughs! She and her sister, Eleanor had appointments at the same time, and there was never a dull moment, to be sure! 😊
Agnes went through and survived some hard things, but she was amazing, and she brought joy and smiles to so many! I will miss this spunky lady , she inspires me to be a more positive and joyful person, and I am thankful to have known her..rest in peace, Agnes!!*
