Alan Michael Dix, age 54, of Pasco, Washington, formerly of Glendive, Montana, passed away on Friday, October 13, 2006 at the Holy Rosary Extended Care Facility in Miles City, Montana. Funeral services will be held at 2:00 P.M., Sunday, October 15, 2006 at the First Congregational United Church of Christ in Glendive with Brother Guy Pontoriero officiating. Visitation will be held one hour prior to service time at the church on Sunday. Private family interment will be held at a later date. Silvernale-Silha Funeral Home of Glendive is entrusted with arrangements. Alan was born on May 8, 1952 in Glendive, Montana, the son of Dr. John Alan and Harriet (Wears) Dix. He was raised and educated in Glendive and graduated from Dawson County High School with the class of 1970. Alan then attended Dawson Community College in Glendive for one year. Alan was united in marriage to Edith Pomeroy on November 6, 1971 in Glendive. Alan formed and played in musical bands with his friends when he was in high school. He later went on tour and resided in Portland where he performed in the Portland Metro area. Alan was involved in highway construction projects for many years. He was most recently employed working on the Hanford Project in Pasco, Washington until one year ago when he retired due to illness. Alan was an avid musician who enjoyed sharing his musical talents with his family and friends throughout his entire life. Alan was a geological enthusiast, who loved to collect rocks. While living or visiting in Glendive, he enjoyed spending time in Makoshika State Park where he spent many hours walking the hills and collecting rocks.

Alan was preceded in death by his father, Dr. John A. Dix in 1960. He is survived by his daughters, Chelsea York of Portland, Oregon and Rosalind Dix of Pullman, Washington; his mother, Harriet Dix of Glendive; his sister, Cheryl Dix of Bend, Oregon; nephew, Justin Steiner of Bend, Oregon; niece, Heather Steiner of Maui, Hawaii and numerous aunts, uncles and cousins.. Memorials are suggested to the First Congregational United Church of Christ Endowment Fund, 120 W. Power St. Glendive, MT 59330 or to the Friends of Makoshika, P.O. Box 1242, Glendive, MT 59330.
