“ Dear Family,

It's odd to think that I never actually met Aunt Alice, although I've talked with her on the phone, written her letters, prayed for her through the years. She told me that she'd never planned on living this long. She said, 'I thought it would be fun to see the new millennium, did that, then I thought it would be fun to turn 100, did that, now I guess my next goal is 105. She almost made it! She also told me although she couldn't walk well, she still had all of her own teeth! She was very proud of that. I wish she could have met all of the dear Koubas in Piseky, Czech. She will be missed. Love, Cheri Swan Picksley (Jerome's daughter)
