

Alma Hrubes

November 10, 1921 - December 19, 2004

Alma Bertha Hrubes age 83, of Wibaux, and formerly of Glendive, Montana passed away on Sunday, December 19, 2004 in the Wibaux County Nursing Home in Wibaux, Montana. Interment will be at the Dawson Memorial Cemetery in Glendive on Thursday, December 23, 2004. Silvernale-Silha Funeral Home is entrusted with arrangements. Alma was born on November 10, 1921 in Golden Valley, North Dakota, the daughter of Jacob and Julia Kittler. As a young girl, she moved to Bloomfield, Montana where she attended the Red Top School until the eighth grade. She was united in marriage to Otto Frank, and to this union their son Chester was born. They remained together until 1943 when Otto passed away. She later was married to Joe Hrubes and they lived in Bloomfield, until moving to Glendive where she had two daughters, Evelyn and Bonnie. Alma enjoyed gardening, and collecting the flowers that she grew. She was an active member of the Assembly of God Church in Glendive. She also enjoyed cooking for her family, and spending time with her grandchildren, whom she loved very much. She was eagerly expecting the arrival of a second great grandchild at the time of her death. She was especially close to her granddaughter, Becky, who took care of her for the past ten years. For the last five years, Becky took care of Alma while she was in the Wibaux County Nursing Home. Alma was preceded in death by both of her husbands, her two brothers, Adolph Kittler, and Gotthilf Kittler, and two sisters Hilda Hopkins, and Ella Day. She is survived by her brother, Rudolph Kittler and his wife Jane of Brighton, Colorado; her sisters, Agnes Nichols and her husband Loren of Billings, Montana, Pauline Sharbono of Fairview, Montana and Ida Horning of Plentywood, Montana; her son, Chester Hrubes and his wife Susan of Charlotte, North Carolina; her daughters, Evelyn Wirtzfeld and Bonnie Neely and her husband Burrell, all of Glendive, Montana; her grandchildren, Karl Hrubes, Kristie and Kelly Hrubes, David Wirtzfeld, Roger Wirtzfeld, Joy Wright and her husband Jerry, Becky Neely, Brienna Hoiland and her husband Rick, and a great grandchild, Callie Wright; numerous nieces and nephews.
