“ Al and my dad were good friends and "ran around" with the same crowd as young men returning from the War. I loved to hear the stories of dancing and partying and general shenanigans between them! He couldn't remember my name so he always called me by my dads name. "Hey, Joe!" It was like having a little piece of my dad around. I truly enjoyed Al and I will miss him. My sympathy to his loved ones.

“ Bill and Dianne,

I just wanted to convey my sympathy for your loss of Al. I got to know Al a little bit while he and dad were both at the Heritage. He was such a kind and sweet man. My dad really enjoyed him and loved playing cards with him. It's kind of crazy that they both passed on the same day....makes me wonder if they had a pinochle game scheduled in heaven...

Anyway, prayers for you both, and all of Al's family.

“ Denny & I lived in Billings and attended the CMA church where we met Al & Eleanor in the 1970's. At the time we were young parents and Al & Eleanor reached out to us in friendship and we have wonderful memories of times spent together such as inviting us to share meals with them.... Audrey Myhre

I would like to thank Christie for calling this week with the news of Al's passing. Al & Eleanor were truly unique and loving parents for their children as well as for their friends. Al once shared an event that happened while they were working for Habit for Humanity. Al's pickup was broken into and the thieves had stolen everything they could find in the vehicle, with one exception... his Bible!

Knowing that was his most prized possession, God spared him the pain for that loss. His tools and other personal items could be replaced, but NOT his Bible!

Rest in Peace, my Friend.... Denny Myhre
