

Anna M. Mankopf

September 9, 1926 - July 2, 2018

Anna "Annie" Mankopf, age 91, of Glendive, Montana passed away on Monday, July 2, 2018 at the Eastern Montana Veterans Home in Glendive. Visitation will be held from 1:00 P.M. until 5:00 P.M. on Thursday, July 5, 2018 at the Silha Funeral Home in Glendive. Funeral services will be at 10:00 A.M. on Friday, July 6, 2018 at the Silha Funeral Home with Father Francis Schreiber officiating. Rite of Committal will follow in Dawson County Cemetery in Glendive. Silha Funeral Home of Glendive has been entrusted with the arrangements.

Annie was born on September 9, 1926 in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, a daughter of Ignatius and Wladislawa Jardszewicz. She was raised and educated in Philadelphia and later met her future husband, John Mankopf, by chance in a movie theater. John had even told a buddy that he was going to marry Annie when he departed the Navy. John didn't want to marry while he was in the service, but once he was discharged and had a decent job, he was wanted to marry her. While Annie waited for John she worked for Whitman's Chocolates as a candy dipper. John held true to his promise though and when he was discharged from the Navy he hired on to the railroad which was known as CB&S at the time. Annie later joined John in Burlington, Iowa where he had been working and they were married in a Lutheran Church. This was one of sixteen moves due to John's job with the railroad before they were finally able to settle in Glendive when John became the Assistant Superintendent Mechanical. They were later remarried at the Sacred Heart Catholic Church in Glendive, because Annie was a devout Catholic. Together Annie and John had one son, John Jr., who was born on October 16, 1970.

Annie's health began to deteriorate so her and John moved to an assisted living facility in Billings, Montana for a short time before coming back to Glendive to live in the Heritage Assisted Living. She then moved to the Glendive Medical Center Extended Care for a short time due to falls, and then to the Wibaux Nursing Home in Wibaux, Montana. The drive to Wibaux became too much during the winter months however, so she made a final move to the Eastern Montana Veteran's Home to be nearer to John.

She was preceded in death by her parents.

Annie is survived by the love of her life, John Mankopf of Glendive; and her son, John Mankopf, Jr. of Belgrade, Montana.

“ We just learned of Anna's passing after looking for her and the family for years. She was the sweetest person and great neighbor in Coon Rapids, Mn. When we met, Anna was pregnant with little John. We stayed in touch for years and then, we lost touch because of our moves and their moves. We loved her; may she rest in peace. John and "john john" know that we have her in our hearts.

“ John and son.

I want to say, it was a joy and great memory for me to have been an aide to Anna in the Vets home in the fall of last year. Gosh she made me smile, and I never met a more patient one in my life. Thank you for the opportunity of know both her and you John. I wanted to come to services but am in TN. God be with you and I pray for comfort in this loss.

Oh my goodness, John. I'm so sorry you've both lost Anna. She and I had so much fun together! We had good times, her telling me stories of Pennsylvania in younger days. She must have been a firecracker! And John Jr., you were not only her son, but a great confidant and caregiver. You both cared and loved her so much, and she knew that. Her attitude was amazing, even through her many struggles. You two lit up her life! I'm so glad I got to know her.
