“ I can count on 1 hand Mark's friends that visited him after his accident. Tony was one of the faithful ones. I always knew when he had been there. He'd leave a cross or a polished agate. One day I came in and Tony was holding his hand and crying. I'll never forget his love for an old friend.

“ I had Tony as a student in my very first class at Sacred Heart. I remember him as a polite little boy with a mischievous smile. I am so sorry that he is gone. You are all in my prayers!

“ I've known Tony since kindergarten. I distinctly remember him as a protector from bullies on the playground at Sacred Heart. He was small but mighty and held a big space with his personality that I admired. We reconnected years later over our love of the outdoors and western history. He will always hold a fond space in my memories.

“ One thing about Tony, if you were his friend, he was your friend. There was no gray area with him, black or white and he called it as he seen it. When i lost my sister, he was one of the ones who checked in with me repeatedly to see how i was and if there was anything he could do. I will miss him, but he is now pain free and not dealing with all the yucky health issues that has been a pain to him for the last few years. Rest in peace my friend.

“ Anthony, I will forever remember us falling in love and starting our family. I'm sorry we didn't make it work but I know that we have two terrific sons and we made memories with them and Kayla. Just know that I choose to remember only the good and I will take care of our boys and honor your memory forever. RIP Anthony Paul ❤️
