

Anton "Tony" Jordan

January 9, 1929 - September 11, 2008

Richey, Montana; Anton "Tony" Jordan, passed away peacefully on Sunday, September 7, 2008 at the McCone County Health Center in Circle, Montana. Funeral Services will be at 10:00 A.M. on Thursday, September 11, 2008 at the American Lutheran Church in Richey, with Pastor Joshua Magyar and Clarice Beery LPA officiating. Interment will be at 2:00 P.M. in the Dawson Memorial Cemetery in Glendive, Montana. Silvernale-Silha Funeral Home of Glendive has been entrusted with arrangements. Tony was born January 9, 1929 in North Dakota, the youngest son of Adam and Flora (Rice) Jordan. He was raised in the Grassy Butte and Killdeer, North Dakota area and later on a farm in Gladstone, North Dakota, where he attended a country school. Tony married Ruth Kukla on October 24, 1955 in Killdeer. They resided on the family farm near Gladstone until 1969. They then purchased a farm/ranch near Richey, where Tony farmed and ranched with his wife Ruth. Tony enjoyed playing his accordion and played with many bands. Tony's passion for his horses, cows and ranching continued until his death. He was a loving husband, father and grandfather and will be missed by his loving family. He was preceded in death by his parents, two sisters; Rose and Tillie, two brothers; Max and Henry. Tony is survived by his wife Ruth of 53 years; daughter, Tammy Jense and her husband Gene of Butte, Montana; son, Kevin Jordan; and his wife Nicole, Grandchildren, Kenny Jense, J.J. and Mackenzie Jordan; 4 sisters; Emma, Julia, Eleanor and Caroline, numerous nieces and nephews.
