Terry was born on January 27, 1942, in Beach. He was the middle son of Charles and Bonna (Weinreis) Smith. Throughout his life, Terry continued to farm, and he was a very present and loving grandfather to his four grandchildren.

Terry is preceded in death by his parents, Charles and Bonna Smith of Beach and his beloved wife, Joan Rose Smith of Beach.

Terry is survived by his four sons, Benjamin (Tye) Smith and his wife Gretchen, Marshal (Todd) Smith and his wife Dawn, Andrew Smith and his wife Tiffanie and Adam Smith; his two grandsons, Shawn Smith and Evan Smith; two granddaughters, Sierra Smith and Kylie Smith; his two brothers, Keith Smith and his wife Pat, and Wesley Smith and his wife Marlys; several cousins; nieces and nephews.

2 Corinthians 4:18 So we fix our eyes not on what is unseen. For what is seen is temporary, but what is unseen is eternal.

“ Todd, Ty, Andrew, and Adam and family
Your dad was a man of great integrity and faith. He was a man who loved his family and held them to a high standard and pride. Joan and him were always so much in love. He would of moved the earth for her. My heart aches for your pain but may you find comfort in the knowledge that he is with his love again and they are preparing for all of you.

Our sympathy to you all for the loss of your dad. Losing a parent leaves such a void in our lives. God Bless.

“ Adam, Andrew, and families, Sally and I send our condolences, your dad was much appreciated. I always enjoyed the times we had to talk with him. The first time I really talked with him we were taking our church bus to pick up Adam and others in Beach. Later Terry told me he expected to see a typical run-down church bus, but was rather awed in the fact we had one that looked nice. He didn't seem to have a problem revealing what he was thinking.
