“ I did not know your loved one, but I am so sorry for your loss. The majority of us are not strangers to loss. Many who have experienced loss find these practical suggestions helpful. Allow yourself time to grieve, talk about your thoughts and feelings, accept help, draw closer to God, visualize the resurrection. Doing these things has given many people, myself included, the strength to go on. My sincere condolences at this difficult time.

“ Was an honor to have known Barb. She was always so upbeat and had a smile on her face. We sure appreciated all the cards that were sent to Vern's mom and to us after she passed away. Always made us feel part of the church even with moving many years ago. Always was fun to be with her back in the AAL days for our big meetings and trainings. We will sure miss our visits with her. The family is in our thoughts and prayers. Hope all your good memories will help in the days ahead.

“ *Harley and Family,
I am in such a shock to read about Barb. I have been looking forward to getting to Glendive this summer for a gathering of supplies and to catch up on our lives. I always looked forward to those times and shall miss them. I am sorry I will be unable to attend her service as have a medical appointment in Billings Wednesday. Please know my thoughts and prayers are with you. I share in your loss as considered her one of my friends. Her zest and enthusiasm for life is certainly going to be missed by many of us.*

“ *We are so sadden to hear this news. We will miss her sweet smile and love when we visit Glendive. She has always had a special place in our family visits to Glendive from California. But we know where she is and that gives us peace. May her family find peace and comfort too, knowing where she is and we will see her again someday. Harley, take good care and we love you!
