Becky was born on March 19, 1974 in Helena, Montana, the daughter of Radene (Wagner) Ostwald and Peter James Degel. She was raised and educated in Glendive and graduated from Dawson County High School with the class of 1992. Following her high school education, Becky attended Dawson Community College in Glendive, and finished her college education at Moorhead State University in Moorhead, Minnesota with a Paralegal Degree in 1998. She then moved to Gillette, Wyoming to pursue her career opportunities as a paralegal for a local attorney. She later moved to Fargo, North Dakota where she met and later married the love of her life, Chris Mallow, on June 16, 2000 in Fargo. To this union were born two beautiful daughters, Rylie Radene and Makynzie Leigh. As a family they made their home in Billings where Becky worked as a teacher's aide for the Billings

Catholic Schools. Becky was a very loving and devoted mother, whose children were her pride and joy. Becky believed that family should always come first and she would have done anything for them. Although she had many hobbies, her passion was always baking, especially cakes and cheesecakes. She enjoyed being able to give her delicious creations to family and friends; and she dreamed of one day starting her own business, "Baked by Bek" so that she could share her treats with everyone. Becky will forever be remembered as a loving mother, wife, daughter, sister and aunt; and her memory will be cherished always. She was preceded in death by her paternal grandparents, Peter Nick and Cora Mae Degel and maternal grandfather, Ray Wagner. Becky is survived by her husband, Chris Mallow and their two daughters, Rylie and Makynzie of Billings; her parents, Peter J. (Shari) Degel of Helena and Radene (Steve) Ostwald of Laurel, Montana; one brother, Peter M. Degel and his wife Leigh and their son Garrett of Portland, Oregon; maternal grandmother, Dorothy Wagner of Billings; and many friends. In lieu of flowers a benefit account for Becky's girls has been established at the Yellowstone Bank in Billings.
