“ My “Aunt” Betty was a loving, caring woman. She always had an open door and an open heart. I loved visiting her, and just soaking up her love. I have missed her gentle presence, and am smiling now, picturing her and my momma thinking up some exciting prank to play on St. Peter!

I love you, my “cousins”, I am praying for you all. I know that there is sadness in the midst of joy. Rest in the promise that she is in the arms of Jesus!
