“ It's been awhile since being in contact with Aunt Betty but Raileen and I never forgot her. Our condolences to the family. You may have forgotten that I lost Leslie and mom within the same year and then I lost Uncle Len from Mom's side. It's been hard. Take care. I wish I would have known sooner. Nancy and Raileen Clark

“ Leanne--I am so sorry to hear of the loss of your Mom. I didn't know you well in high school, but I do know your Mom was the next-door neighbor of Ruth Allard, my sister's mother-in-law, long deceased. All of us kids lost our Mom at the age of 96, also. But I tell ya, even though it's been almost two years, I just miss her so much, and am so grateful when a new memory pops up to enjoy. Bless you and your siblings.
