

Bradley Ray Juma

March 28, 1956 - January 31, 2015

Bradley Ray Juma, age 58, of Beach, North Dakota and Detroit Lakes, Minnesota, passed away at his home on Saturday, January 31, 2015 in Beach. Visitation will be held from 9:00 A.M. until 3:00 P.M. on Thursday, February 5, 2015 at the Silha Funeral Home in Beach. A Rosary/Vigil Service will be held at 7:00 P.M. on Thursday, February 5, 2015 at the St. John the Baptist Catholic Church in Beach. A second visitation will be held one hour prior to the Mass from 1:30 P.M. until 2:30 P.M. on Friday, February 6, 2015 at St. John the Baptist Catholic Church. A Mass of Christian Burial will be held at 2:30 P.M. on Friday, February 6, 2015 at St. John the Baptist Catholic Church in Beach with Reverend David Richter as Celebrant and Father Dan Berg as Con-Celebrant. Silha Funeral Home of Beach has been entrusted with the arrangements.

Brad was born March 28, 1956, in Stanley, North Dakota. His parents are Charles and Marlys (Nohr) Juma. He was educated in the Stanley school system graduating with the class of 1975. Brad then went to work for Midstate Telephone for a few years. He decided to attend aviation school in Greeley, Colorado where he received his aviation degree. After aviation school, Brad returned to Stanley where he resumed work for Midstate Telephone for the next 30+ years, until his time of death.

Brad was united in marriage to Bonnie (Wilhelmi) on October 4, 1994 at Incline Village, California. They returned to Stanley until relocating to Beach in 1997. Brad and his brother-in-law, Tom Wilhelmi, started Beach Cable Vision in 2000.

Brad was a member of St. John the Baptist Catholic Church in Beach and was proud to be on their building committee. The most important thing in Brad's life was his walk and relationship with God, He had a deep faith and shared this openly with everyone he met. Some of Brad's favorite things were being with his family and taking care of his neighbors and elderly people around him. He and Bonnie traveled back and forth to one another between their homes in Beach, ND, and Detroit Lakes, MN often. They were planning and looking forward to a future together under one roof!

Brad also loved reading, and was known for usually reading two to three books at one time. One of his favorite things to do was reading books aloud to his wife Bonnie. This will be one of her treasured memories. He also loved his father-daughter dates with his daughter, Hannah, who was such a light in his life. He will be remembered for his infectious laughter, his quick wit and funny humor. He loved lifting other's spirits and encouraging them whenever he could. He will be missed by his family and friends.

He is survived by his wife, Bonnie Juma of Detroit Lakes; daughter, Hannah Marie Juma of Grand Forks; sisters, Michelle Harstad of Stanley, Dana Harstad of Stanley, Candace Brown of Minot, and parents, Charles and Marlys Juma, of Stanley.

Remembrances and condolences can be shared with the family at www.silhafuneralhomes.com.
