“ My condolences to the family. When the enemy death strikes, it leaves us with pain and feelings that are difficult to process. May you be comforted in knowing that God (Psalms 83:18) can give you that Peace of God that surpasses all understanding when you draw close to him in prayers daily.

“ *We've all had to endure the sorrow of losing a loved one in death. What helped me the most was prayer and faith in God's promises like found here at Isaiah 25: 8 and it tells us: "He will swallow up death forever, And the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces." “ Many may say she was just a nurses aide, but that wasn't the case with Brenda. Brenda cared about her patients and wanted to make sure they were well taken care of. I will miss your caring attitude and your thoughtfulness toward others.

“ To all of Brenda's family.
My deepest sympathy is with all of you. Brenda's struggle is over but your grief is not. "They" say the good die young. This isn't true.
Brenda was one of the Good ones! She was kind and compassionate. She was a hard worker. I would have Brenda train the new CNA's back on our night shifts. I often wished I could have cloned her. I can hear her laugh, even now. I have seen Brenda's faith, and the faith of all of you in action. It was my honor to have spent some time with all of you during Brenda's final struggle. May God wrap His loving arms around all of you and give you Peace and comfort. You will see her again. Love to you all
