

Bruce Brown

March 21, 1952 - September 1, 2012

Glendive, Montana: Bruce Wayne Brown, age 60, passed away on Monday, August 27, 2012 at the Glendive Medical Center Extended Care in Glendive. A Memorial Service will be held at 5:30 P.M. on Saturday, September 1, 2012 at the Yellowstone River Boat Dock located next to the Montana State Highway Department in Glendive with Reverend Emma Curtis officiating. Silvernale-Silha Funeral Home of Glendive has been entrusted with the arrangements. Bruce was born on March 21, 1952 in St. Louis, Missouri, a son of Luther and Wanda (Watts) Brown. He was raised and educated in the St. Louis area attending school through the eighth grade. Bruce worked for the Oil Rigs for several years before he started his seventeen-year career working for Action for Eastern Montana as a Food Bank Clerical. He met and later married Laura French on October 1, 2010 in Glendive. Bruce loved his family very much, enjoyed fishing and floating the river, he had a wonderful sense of humor and was a very patient man. Bruce was preceded in death by his parents, Luther and Wanda Brown. Survivors include his wife, Laura Brown of Glendive; children, Crystal Brown and Richard Brown of Salem, Oregon, Desiree (Don) Murphy and family and Danielle Brown all of Dickinson, North Dakota; fourteen grandchildren; sister, Debbie (Leon) Brittain; brother, Kenny Brown of Salem, Missouri and numerous nieces and nephews. In lieu of flowers memorials in Bruce's remembrance are suggested to the Dawson County Food Bank. Remembrances and condolences may be shared with the family at: www.silvernale-silhafuneralhome.com.
