Caleb was born on June 19, 2016 in Miles City, Montana, a son of Duncan Hopkins and Ashley Howard. He lived in Glendive where he loved playing outside. He especially loved going to the parks in town and playing in the water at the splash park. While on walks Caleb liked picking up the rocks he found and then putting them in his pocket. His pockets were always full by the time they got home, and sometimes the wagon was too. He also had a ton of fun fishing with his family, being pushed around on his toy car, playing with balls of all sizes, and of course talking on his toy cell phone. He was also grandma's cooking partner and often helped by adding the cheese and seasonings to the food. Some of Caleb's favorite TV shows were PJ Masks, Puppy Dog Pals, and Paw Patrol.

He was preceded in death by two great-grandmas, one great-grandpa, one great-uncle, and one great-aunt.

Caleb is survived by his mom, Ashley Howard of Glendive; dad, Duncan Hopkins of Glendive; maternal grandparents, Maria Lackey of Baltimore, Maryland and John Howard (Lisa Canup) of Glendive; paternal grandparents, Donald (Marsha) Hopkins of Glendive; maternal great-grandpa, Bankie Howard of Kentucky; paternal great-grandparents, Margie Pratt of Glendive and Hillier Hopkins of Great Falls, Montana; and numerous aunts, uncles, and cousins.

“ I am going to miss you Caleb. You were always such a friendly little guy that liked to come see my horses and would wave to me when I was outside. I will miss watching you go by my house while being pulled in your wagon, or on your tractor. This always made me smile and I am so glad that I got to meet you. I will cherish the time you came over and played on the slide and when I got to hold you. Caleb you will always be the pride and joy of your family and I am so sorry you were taken from them so soon. I know the pain they are all feeling and there aren't any words anyone can say that will take it away. Just know that we all care and will be praying for your family.
