

Carl Dean Keller

July 10, 1957 - September 4, 2007

Carl Dean Keller, age 50, of Glendive, went home to be with the Lord rejoicing on Thursday, August 30, 2007 in Glendive after a hard fought battle with cancer. Celebration of his life services will be held at 10:00 A.M., Tuesday, September 4, 2007 at the Evangelical Church of North America in Glendive with Roy Fatzinger officiating. Silvernale-Silha Funeral Home of Glendive is entrusted with arrangements. Carl was born on July 10, 1957 in Sidney, Montana, the son of Dandy Dean and Darlene (Filler) Keller. He was raised and educated in Savage, Montana, graduating from Savage High School in 1976. Carl worked at Holly Sugar and later he worked on a seismograph crew. He later moved to Alaska and attended Alaska Bible Institute in Homer and graduated in 1981. He worked on fish processing boats during the summer. He then returned to Savage where he met Anita Schmitz at a Bible study and they were united in marriage on June 4, 1983 in Savage. Carl and his wife lived in Savage and worked in the Savage area and later moved to Glendive where he resided until the time of his death. Carl made furniture with diamond willow and other wood that was available in eastern Montana. It was a relaxing enjoyable time for him as well as raising truck gardens at various times. He enjoyed fishing and hunting- first with his dad and later with his children. Carl was a hard worker and enjoyed the harvest from his gardening projects. He also enjoyed agate picking. His greatest pride and joy was being with his family. He was proud of his children. Carl was preceded in death by his father. Survivors include his wife, Anita, of Glendive; his children, Rhema

Keller of Camp Pendleton, California, Elisha Keller of Glendive, Patient Joy Keller of Glendive, Isaiah Keller of Twentynine Palms, California, Jubilee Keller and Tetelestai "Lestai" Keller, both of Glendive; his mother, Darlene Pease and her husband Bernard of Lambert, Montana; his brothers, David Keller and his wife Miriam of Glendive and Stacy Keller and his wife Alice of Sidney, Montana; his sisters, Sheila Keller and her husband, Robert Hill of Glendive and Tina Schmitt of Helena, Montana; numerous nieces and nephews and his brothers and sisters in Christ.

Tribute Wall

“ Carl Dean Keller

December 07, 2022 at 04:10 PM