Carl was born on February 7, 1922 in Lambert, Montana, the son of Ole L. and Marie (Sund) Moen. He was raised and educated in Lambert. Carl entered the United States Army in September of 1942 and served in the European, African and Middle East campaigns of World War II. Following his discharge in January of 1946, he arrived in Sidney, Montana by train. He married Anna Mae Barnes in June of 1960. They lived on a farm near Lambert and later moved to Sidney and then to Savage, Montana. Carl moved to Glendive in 1966 where he has resided since. He had been a resident of the Eastern Montana Veterans Home since 2002. Carl enjoyed reading the Bible and had read it 24 times. He was a faithful listener and supporter of KGLE Radio. Carl attended a coffee club at McDonalds. He enjoyed attending functions at the Senior Citizens Center - especially playing pool and dancing. He was a faithful voter. Carl was an avid baseball and football fan - his favorite teams were the Minnesota Vikings and the California Angels. He had a great sense of humor and had a story for everything. Carl is preceded in death by his parents; his infant son, Timothy Carl Moen; five brothers, Gilman, Roy, Oscar, Arnold and Einar who died at two years of age; seven sisters, Mabel, Esther, Olga, Signa, Lila, Evelyn, and an infant sister who died at birth. Survivors include his daughter, Ruth Hanning and her husband Phillip of Great Falls, Montana; three grandchildren, Nichole Hanning, Kristen Hanning and Timothy Hanning; numerous nieces and nephews.
