“ Carmen was a very special lady. She was warm, welcoming, friendly and a great neighbor when we arrived in Glendive in the mid nineties for a job opportunity for my husband. Ray was going through cancer treatment at that time and we had many great visits and conversations that covered a multitude of subjects. We left in 1999 and would visit occasionally via the telephone. She was a gracious lady totally devoted to her family. She will be missed. Our sincerest condolences to her family.
