

Carol J. Sutton

December 3, 1935 - February 21, 2012

Glendive, Montana: Carol Joy Sutton, age 76, passed away on Tuesday, February 21, 2012 at the Glendive Medical Center Extended Care in Glendive. A private interment will be held at Dawson County Cemetery in Glendive. Silvernale-Silha Funeral Home of Glendive has been entrusted with the arrangements. Carol Joy Sutton was born in Glendive on December 3, 1935, the daughter of Lloyd and Jesse Joy (Jones) Sutton. She enjoyed country life with her parents and three brothers on a farm and ranch twelve miles northeast of Bloomfield, Montana. Carol attended the South Valley Rural Elementary School in Bloomfield completing the sixth grade before health problems forced her to leave. Carol was a member of the South Valley Fundamental Church which was founded by her uncle, Reverend Ford M. Burtch. Carol loved the old time gospel preaching and singing and she learned the words and music to hundreds of hymns and choruses. Carol moved to Sidney, Montana in December of 1979 and lived there almost two years until moving to Washington state in September of 1981 to be closer to her brother, Jerold. In June of 1991 she moved to Lewistown, Montana and resided there until December of 2000 when she made her final move to Glendive when she became a resident of the Glendive Medical Center Extended Care. Though Carol was severely handicapped in this world, she found hope and confidence for her future. Having received Jesus Christ as her personal Savior, she was guaranteed eternity without handicap! She was preceded in death by her parents, Lloyd Sr. and Joy Sutton and her brother,

Lloyd Sutton Jr. Survivors include her brothers, Eugene (Marjorie) Sutton of Lynnwood, Washington and Jerold (Bonnie) Sutton of Edmonds, Washington; and numerous nieces and nephews. Remembrances and condolences may be shared with the family at: www.silvernale-silhafuneralhome.com.
