Carolyn was born on April 22, 1929 in Dickinson, North Dakota to Frank and Ella (Haverluck) Shevela. She was raised and educated in Belfield, North Dakota until she moved with her family to Glendive, where she met her future husband Reuben Starr. They were united in marriage on October 17, 1946 in Sidney and to this union five children were born. When the children were older she enjoyed traveling with Reuben for his work. Carolyn loved her children and later her grandchildren more than anything and time spent with them was always treasured. She enjoyed cooking and gardening in her spare time. Throughout the years many were blessed with the fruits of her labors and memories created together. Carolyn's cats were a close second in her heart and her children often joked that anyone would be lucky to come back as one of her cats.

She is survived by two daughters, Darlene Walth of Halliday, North Dakota and Signe Verhasselt of Savage; two sons, Reuben Jr. (Kim) Starr of Houston, Texas and Daryl Starr of Great Falls, Montana; thirteen grandchildren; numerous great grandchildren; a few great great grandchildren and numerous nieces and nephews.
