

Charles T. Smith

August 27, 1916 - November 12, 2005

Charles T. Smith, 89, of Beach, North Dakota, passed away October 27, 2005 at St. Joseph's Hospital in Dickinson, North Dakota. Memorial services will be Saturday, November 12, 2005 at 2:00 P.M. in the United Community Church in Beach with Rev. Warren Maxted officiating. A private family grave side will be held in the Beach City Cemetery. Charles was born August 27, 1916 to Charles H. and Mabel (Kirpatrick) Smith in Sentinel Butte, North Dakota. He was the third of six children. On May 7, 1938 Charles married Bonna H. Weinreis at Terry, Montana. Charles farmed in the Beach community all his life. He was also involved in construction with Joe Johnstone for 15 years. Charles served on the Beach Civil Township Board, Rural Telephone Board, Cemetery Board and as county commissioner. Charles and Bonna loved to travel and enjoyed family gatherings. Charles loved to hunt but his passion was for salmon fishing. Charles was known in this community for his honesty, integrity and hard work. Charles is survived by his wife, Bonna of Beach; three sons, Keith (Pat) of Sheridan, Wyoming, Terry (Joan) of Beach, North Dakota and Wesley (Marlys) of Jamestown, North Dakota. Charles has eight grandchildren, Scott, Traci, Tye, Todd, Andrew, Adam, Nicholle, Lorie and seven great grandchildren; two sisters and one brother. Charles was preceded in death by his parents, a brother, sister and a grandchild.

Tribute Wall

“ Charles T. Smith

December 07, 2022 at 04:10 PM