Clem was born on July 21, 1925, on the farm near Blue Grass, North Dakota, a son of Christ and Anna (Goldade) Skalsky. He was the second youngest of twelve children. Clem was raised and educated in a country school through the eighth grade near Blue Grass.

Clem met and later married Gladys Hoerner on November 17, 1952 in Glen Ullin, North Dakota. As a couple they resided in Blue Grass for a short time before moving to Glen Ullin. In 1956, Clem and Gladys moved to Glendive where they resided since. During Clem's working years, he worked for Rahr's Meat Service, and Al's Main Street Standard before starting his career with the City of Glendive as a Sanitation Engineer. Clem continued this line of work until his retirement in 1987.

Clem was a soft spoken man that enjoyed listening to old time polka music, working in the yard, making small yard ornaments, and taking quiet walks around the neighborhood. Anytime Clem would get a twinkle in his eye and crack a big smile, you knew he was up to no good.

He is preceded in death by his parents; wife, Gladys Skalsky in 2010; five brothers and six sisters.

He is survived by his three children, Cindy Skalsky of Glendive, Dennis (Nancy) Skalsky of Helena and Troy Skalsky of Glendive; two grandchildren; and numerous nieces and nephews.
