Funeral Services will be held at 10:00 A.M., Thursday, July 2, 2009, at the First Lutheran Church of Beach with Pastor Paul Peterson officiating.

Interment will follow at 1:00 P.M. in the Douglas Family Cemetery in Wibaux County, Montana, near Carlyle, Montana. Silvernale-Silha Funeral Home of Beach is entrusted with the arrangements. Cleone was born on February 4, 1919, in rural Golva, North Dakota, the daughter of Guy and Iva (Snow) Curl. She was raised and educated in the Golva community, having attended Golva and Beach schools and graduating from Beach High School with the class of 1937. Cleone married Morris Douglas November 22, 1938, in Beach. She and her husband owned and operated a farm and ranch in the Carlyle community their entire life. She and her husband were actively involved with the Golden Valley County 4-H Clubs. Cleone enjoyed cooking, sewing, and attending the quilting circle in the First Lutheran Church. She loved having huge gardens and Hereford cattle. She had been very active in Eastern Star and served always as a care-giver for family as well as being a volunteer care-giver at the Golden Valley Manor in Beach. Cleone was preceded in death by her husband in August of 1983. Following the death of her husband, Cleone established very deep and lasting relationships with a very special circle of friends in the area. She remained in her home on the ranch until 2003 when she moved to Iowa City to be near her daughter, but she continued to maintain an active role in the ranch operation until the time of her death. During her time spent in Iowa City, Cleone received a service award provided by the Amana School for her work within the school. Cleone was preceded in death by a son, Duane in 2007 and two infant sisters. Survivors include her daughter, Arlene McBride and her husband Bunny of Iowa City, Iowa; her son, Paul Douglas and his wife Joanne of Medora, North Dakota; her daughter-in-law, Sheryl Douglas of Sidney, Montana; her brother, Gerald Curl and his wife Judy of Beach, North Dakota; 8 grandchildren and 7 great-grandchildren.
