“ Guys, I have no idea what to say, which is crazy because I use my voice for work now. We are so sorry and feel terrible for you. But please know that your family is never alone and we will do anything that we can do to help through these sad, sad times.

“ My sincere condolences to the Keller family. May you find comfort in your loving memories, and in God's promise to soon "swallow up death forever" and "wipe away the tears from all faces." (Isaiah 25;8) While grief at the loss of Courtney is great, joy at welcoming her back in the resurrection will be greater. (Mark 5;42) With deepest sympathy, “ Courtney was such a sweet girl, she'd open up her heart to anyone that would let her. Along with that contagious smile she had one of those laughs. You could hear it from down the hall and you'd just smile and think, yep! That's courtney! I spent time with her in study hall ever since the 5th grade. She was a grade ahead of me and we didn't really talk in middle school but we had math with Mrs. Kinney in high school and we did more than talk in that class. She had really become a good friend of mine my freshman and sophomore year and I'm sure that would have continued if I had stayed in school! Because she was just that kind of person. I've never seen court turn anyone down. She will be forever missed. My condolences go out to her family and friends.

“ I had the pleasure of teaching Courtney in middle school. She was something special with her easy going country girl ways and a touch of sass. She could brighten anyone's day with her huge smile. She will surely be missed by many, as she was so accepting of all. May God bring much comfort to those who are hurting.

“ What a fabulous smile. I am told Courtney shared her intense love of life unselfishly with all her friends and family and I know she will be deeply missed. It is always sad to lose someone this close to you, but perhaps especially difficult when the loss is so out of context due to her youth and vitality. We turn to God for comfort and I offer prayers for her and for all those who loved her.

I recently read a sign that said: "Grief never ends, but it changes. It is a passage, not a place to stay. Grief is not a sign of weakness nor a lack of faith...it is the price of love."

I wanted to add that sentiment as a comfort to Jason, Wyatt all her many friends & family who will miss her terribly. She was blessed to have had all of you in her life and she touched yours in such a happy way also.
