

Cynthia Pannell

January 30, 1947 - May 19, 2012

Glendive, Montana: Cynthia Pannell, age 65, passed away on Saturday, May 19, 2012 at the Glendive Medical Center in Glendive. As requested there will be no services. Silvernale-Silha Funeral Home of Glendive has been entrusted with the arrangements. Cynthia was born on January 30, 1947 in The Dalles, Oregon, the daughter of Oscar and Etta (Simpson) Criss. When she was young she moved with her family to Barstow, California where she was raised and received her early education. Cynthia met and later married James Pannell in California around 1970. She later moved to Glendive in 1996 to be closer to her daughter, Samantha. She loved cleaning house and helping her children clean their houses. She was a very helpful lady that enjoyed helping out in anyway she could, especially when they were sick or needed help with their children. Cynthia was Mom to many children throughout the years. A loving, caring and joyful person. She was always ready to talk to everyone about anything and always left her door open for those who needed a little help. She will be missed by all who knew her. Cynthia was preceded in death by her parents, Oscar and Etta Criss. Survivors include her children, Ju-Dee (Wendell) Jackson of Glendive, Andre (Alma) LaFlamme of Benton, Arkansas, Tara Criss of Visalia, California, Samantha Pannell of Glendive, Trista Pannell of Little Rock, Arkansas, Conan Pannell of Tyler, Texas and Amy Criss of Glendive; brothers, Robert Criss of Oregon and Danny Criss of Arkansas; twenty-eight grandchildren and numerous nieces and nephews.
