

David James Witkowski

January 3, 1959 - February 14, 2023

David James (Gappa) Witkowski, age 64, lifelong resident of Wibaux, MT, passed away in Wibaux on Tuesday, February 14, 2023. Gappa was born in Beach, ND on January 3, 1959, to Katheryn (Piesik) and John Witkowski. He attended Wibaux High School.

Gappa held positions at the Wibaux fiberglass plant, Holly Sugars in Sidney, the cheese factory in Beach, and Neighbors Drilling. He enjoyed hunting and fishing and especially enjoyed sharing that time with family and friends.

Gappa was also an avid pinochle player and loved to play in pinochle tournaments. He was well known to all and could be found watching his great nieces and nephews play sports for the Wibaux Longhorns. Gappa was also know for caring for the stray neighborhood cats, even making sure they had a heated water dish in the winter. He had a large library of movies that he would loan out to the neighborhood, letting people sign out one movie at a time and then when they returned it allowing them to sign out another.

Gappa is survived by brothers Johnny Lee and Jim Witkowski, several cousins, many nieces, nephews as well as great nieces and nephews. He was predeceased by parents John and Katheryn Witkowski, brother Donald Witkowski, sister Mary Ann Witkowski, sister Anna Marie Nistler as well as sisters-in-law Sally Witkowski, Jean Witkowski, Veronica Witkowski, and brother-in-law Toby Nistler.

A Memorial service and pinochle tournament will be held at the Wibaux fairgrounds on June 10, 2023. More information will be provided to the community prior to the service.
