“ My Dearest Aunt Lillie: I myself, didn't get to know Uncle David, as well as I would have like. What I do remember of him, he seemed like a very serious man, but was a joker, at heart. I remember him always tormenting my Mother Wilma, Those 2 were quite the pair. Uncle David is up in Heaven with my Momma.....Oh..My... What a Joyous Reunion...That will be. I Love You Aunt Lillie, you are in my Heart and my Prayers.

“ Aunt Lillie and Family, although our families live thousand a miles apart, the few visits we have had always meant alot. My Dad gave me a hand typed "journal of Uncle David's Childhood" I enjoyed reading it already, but have reviewed the entries in recent weeks. Take comfort of the lives he has touched. And know that you and your family are in my thoughts an prayers. With deepest respect, Patrice Blackford Martineau
