May 25, 2026

Dean Lyle Oellermann, 67, of Glendive, Montana, passed away on May 25, 2026. A gathering of family and friends will be held in conjunction with his brother, Steven Oellermann's service Friday, May 29, 2026, from 6PM to 8PM at Silha Funeral Home in Glendive. A Celebration of Life will be held at 5:00 PM on Saturday, May 30, 2026 at the lower group use shelter in the Makoshika State Park. Silha Funeral Home of Glendive has been entrusted with local arrangements.

Dean was known for his lighthearted spirit, quick humor, and the kind of presence that could make people feel comfortable without trying too hard. He enjoyed the simple things in life most deeply, especially gardening and the satisfaction of hard work. Many in the community knew him through his time working at Ace Hardware, where his friendly personality and willingness to help left a lasting impression on those around him.

Above all else, Dean will be remembered for the laughter he brought into the lives of others and the quiet strength he carried through life.

Remembrances and condolences can be shared with family at: www.silhafuneralhomes.com.

“ I am sorry for the whole Oellerman family. Steve did some electric work for me years ago and Dean and my brother Cal were friends. They went to school together. When he first started at Reynolds Grocery he says to me. "hey aren't you Cal Giesers little sister?" I just chuckled and said yes Dean Oellerman I am. He gave a chuckle as well. I am sorry for your loss. Both of you men were wonderful. God gave you those beautiful white wings to fly so soar high. May the both of you rest in peace.
