“ *Aunt Delaine, what a wonderful, sweet, kind and caring person she was, I really cannot say enough good things about her. I spent a few of my summers with her and her wonderful family and when the time came, I hated going back home!!
She will never ever be forgotten and what a very special lady she was. I will never forget her laugh, she had the cutest laugh and she was always so happy.
She was loved by everyone and my heart goes out to her family.*

“ It was always a treat to visit aunt Delaine and Uncle Elf at their Grocery store in Wibaux or at their lovely home. Aunt Delaine and our Mother Lillian were the 2nd and 3rd youngest in a family of ten, they shared many adventures and created lots of memories. Delaine was Mom's maid of honor. Our thoughts are with Delaine's family she was a special lady and the world was a sweeter place because she was part of it.
