Donald was born on March 25, 1932, to the late Sadie (JeanBlanc) and Louis Baumann in Bowdon, North Dakota. After graduating high school in Fessenden, North Dakota, Donald stayed home and helped his parents on the farm. In 1956, Donald served his country in the United States Army for two years working as a mechanic. After his military time, Donald returned home to buy the farm from his parents. Donald stayed in Fessenden until the age of 36 while attending college at Minot State University and obtaining a degree in Business Administration with a minor in Vocational Education in 1971. During college Don was introduced to his future wife Marlys Berglund. Don and Marlys were married on June 20, 1970 in Fessenden, North Dakota. After finishing his degree, Donald and Marlys moved to Devils Lake, North Dakota, where he taught school and they had their first child, Stephanie Lynn. Donald and Marlys moved to Mandan, North Dakota, in 1973 where he started his full-time career with the United States Postal Service. Donald and Marlys had their next five children in Mandan: Sheryl Marie, Scott Alan, Stacey Joseph, Shane Christopher, and Sandra Ann. Donald received an offer to become a Postmaster in Beach, North Dakota, in 1982 and they had their youngest child, Sheila Renee. Donald retired from the United States Postal Service in 1994, where he served for 28 years. He enjoyed watching his children grow up and attend events, traveling the country, the outdoors, hunting, gardening and spending time with his grandchildren. Donald was preceded in death by his parents, Sadie and Louis Baumann, and his sister, Clemence. Donald is survived by his wife of 39 years, Marlys; his 7 children: Stephanie Baumann, Sheryl Brown and her husband Stan, Scott Baumann, Stacey Baumann and his wife Heather, Shane Baumann and his wife Jinhee, Sandra Baumann, Sheila Harmeyer and her husband David; 10 grandchildren: Meghan, Brittane, Matthew, Mason, Malayna, Rian, Cara, Logan, Joseph, Cole; and siblings, Louis, Grace, and Carol.
