

Donald Inklebarger

June 30, 1939 - March 3, 2006

Donald Earl Inklebarger, age 66, of Wibaux, Montana, died at the Fort Harrison Veterans Facility in Fort Harrison, Montana on February 28, 2006. Funeral Services will be held at 10:00 A.M. Friday, March 3, 2006 in the chapel of the Silvernale-Silha Funeral Home in Wibaux, Montana with Reverend Larry Phalen officiating. Interment will follow services at the Wibaux City Cemetery. Silvernale-Silha Funeral Home of Wibaux is entrusted with arrangements. Don was born June 30, 1939 in Branch, Arkansas, the son of Earl and Ethel Lorane (Koontz) Inklebarger. He moved with his parents to Porterville, California in 1947 where he graduated from Bartlet High School. Don married Sandra Simonson on January 7, 1967 in Los Angeles, California. They were later divorced October 21, 1993 in Wibaux. Don entered the U.S. Army in 1961 and served until 1963. After the Army Don worked for TRW REDA Submergible Pump Co. for twenty years. He started out building pumps and ended up as a field service technician, installing and repairing pumps. He also worked as a carpenter and mechanic. Don ran a convenience store in Wibaux for five years. Don's hobbies included riding motorcycles, camping, fishing and breaking horses. He enjoyed mechanical work and socializing with people of all ages. Don was very loving, outgoing and willing to give what he could to those in need. He is preceded in death by a son, David and his parents. Don is survived by a daughter, Kim Ueckert and her husband Ross of Beach, North Dakota; a sister, Fran Browning of Livingston, California; a brother, Bob Inklebarger of Washington; two grandchildren, Kayla and Conner

Ueckert of Beach.

Tribute Wall

“ Donald Inklebarger

December 07, 2022 at 04:10 PM