

Donald Louis Plagmann Sr.

January 10, 1935 - June 9, 2009

GLENDIVE, MONTANA: Donald Louis Plagmann Sr., 74, of Glendive, Montana, died Friday, June 5, 2009 at the Glendive, Medical Center in Glendive. A Memorial service will be held at 10:00 A.M. Tuesday, June 9, 2009 at the Glendive Masonic Lodge. Silvernale-Silha Funeral Home of Glendive is entrusted with the arrangements. Donald was born January 10, 1935 in Glendive, the son of Melvin and Hazel (Hentzy) Plagmann. He was raised and educated in Vancouver, Washington. Following the completion of his education, Don was employed as a Service Manager for Dodge Automotive. Don had made his home in Glendive for the past 26 years during which time he operated the "Car Clinic", worked as a Shop Supervisor for Brengle Motors and as a sporting goods clerk for Hagenston Hardware before owning and operating Don's Gunshop where he was a master gunsmith from 1990 to 1994. Don was very active in the Glendive Masonic Lodge and took great pride in the "shoe's for kids" program helping distribute shoes to needy children. Don loved children, he enjoyed their company and was a mentor for many who would call him "Grandpa". He enjoyed golfing, Dawson Community College Volleyball, trap shooting and watching movies. He was a member of the Masonic lodge and the Shriners. Don is survived by his wife Kathleen Fritsch of Glendive, Montana; two sons, Donald L. Plagmann Jr. of Glendive and Dean Plagmann and his wife Lynn of Everett, Washington; two daughters, Sherry Perkins of Indianapolis, Indiana and Denise Marshall of Sebree, Kentucky; eight grandchildren and one great grandchild.
