

Dooley Pauley

May 11, 1925 - October 15, 2005

Dooley T. Pauley, age 80, of Glendive, died peacefully at his home on Wednesday, October 12, 2005. Memorial services will be held at 2:00 P.M., Saturday, October 15, 2005 at Perham Football Field in Glendive. Silvernale-Silha Funeral Home of Glendive is entrusted with arrangements. Dooley was born on May 11, 1925 in Sheridan, Wyoming, the son of Herman and Lone Pauley. Dooley was united in marriage to Betty Hammer on April 13, 1946 in Hardin, Montana. Together they raised two sons, Gregg and Brad. He served in the U.S. Air Force as a pilot. After leaving the service, Dooley began a life long career in the printing and newspaper business. After working for newspapers in Hardin and Lewistown, he started his own shop, Pauley's Printing, in 1959 in Glendive. The Dickinson Press purchased his printing shop in 1965 and moved the business into the Ranger Review. Dooley started writing sports for the Ranger Review in 1965 along with operating the print shop. He was selected as a Heisman Trophy elector, one of 1,100 in the United States, and voted in that process for 20 years. He covered sports for the Ranger Review for 40 years. Dooley's life revolved around hunting, fishing, golfing and three of life's loves, his grandchildren. He was an avid sports fan his whole life.. Survivors include his wife, Betty, of Glendive; his sons, Brad and his wife Kathy and Gregg and his wife Nora of Pierre, South Dakota; his three grandchildren, JB, Shelby and Derek Pauley.
