

Doris Freistone

April 20, 1925 - December 28, 2013

Doris M. Freistone, age 88, of Oregon City, Oregon formerly of Glendive, Montana passed away peacefully on Wednesday, December 18, 2013 in Oregon City. She died from related injuries due to a fall after a month of pneumonia. Doris had been living in Oregon for the past eight years in assisted living and memory care, under the care and supervision of her daughter, Bonnie Freistone, and dear friend, Donna Lindell. Visitation will be held from 2:00 P.M. until 5:00 P.M. on Friday, December 27, 2013 at the Silvernale-Siha Funeral Home in Glendive. Funeral services will be held at 10:00 A.M. on Saturday, December 28, 2013 at the United Methodist Church in Glendive with Reverend Avis Anderson officiating. Interment will be in the Dawson County Cemetery in Glendive. Silvernale-Siha Funeral Home of Glendive has been entrusted with the arrangements. Doris was born on April 20, 1925, a daughter of John and Pearl Simonson, in Casper, Wyoming and moved to Glendive in her youth. She was a resident of Glendive until her stroke eight years ago when her family moved her to Oregon. Doris was married to Ole Freistone, an engineer on the railroad. Doris and Ole raised seven children, Ronnie Freistone of Glendive; Bonnie Freistone of Lake Oswego, Oregon; Becky Hicks of Glendive; Linda Fraughton of Inkom, Idaho; Eileen Lovaas of Phoenix, Arizona; Wes Freistone of Anchorage, Alaska; and April Carpenter of Glendive. Doris is survived by eleven grandchildren, twenty great-grandchildren, and one great-great-grandchild. She also has three living siblings, Joe Simonson, Jerry Simonson, and Jean Spencer. Doris was a devoted mother and grandmother and will be remembered for her high level of energy to keep up with all their multiple activities and interests. She loved to play bridge, was active with the Democratic Ladies and Methodist church. She was a devoted volunteer for any job to support the community, family, friends, and the state of Montana. She was a beautiful seamstress, quilter, and loved to china paint, and do oil painting. Her passion for cooking and baking and never following a recipe was always a major topic at the family kitchen table. Out of all the many things she loved, Doris loved music and to dance. In her later years she joined a kitchen band that entertained at many events in the community. Remembrances and condolences may be shared with the family at: www.silvernale-silhafuneralhome.com.
