

Doris Searer

March 26, 1933 - May 25, 2007

GLENDIVE, MT.: Private family graveside services for Doris Lucille Searer, 74, will be held Thursday, May 31, 2007, at the Dawson Memorial Cemetery in Glendive, Montana. Doris died on Friday, May 25, 2007 at the Robison Care Center in Glendive. Silvernale-Silha Funeral Home of Glendive is entrusted with the arrangements. Doris was born on March 26, 1933 in Havre, Montana, the daughter of Victor and Fern(Arnold) Peters. She was raised and educated in Havre. Doris married Vernon Searer on May 17, 1950 in Malta, Montana. They had recently celebrated 57 years of being best friends and soul mates. Doris and her husband moved to Glendive in 1951 where they resided for 10 years until moving to the family farm in the Clear Creek area in the early 1960's. In 1969 they moved to their present farm-ranch in the north Pleasantview area, where she resided until the time of her death. Doris had worked alongside her husband on the farm throughout her entire life. Doris enjoyed flower and vegetable gardening, crafts, knitting and sewing. Her primary love was being a wife, mother and grandmother. Doris was preceded in death by her parents, one son, Victor Searer, two sisters, Carol Peters and Peggy D'Hoge. Survivors include her husband Vernon of Glendive, two daughters, Debbie Searer and her fiancé Jack Collins of Bismarck, North Dakota and Billie Jo Searer and her fiancé James Lipsett of Dickinson, North Dakota, one son, Randy Searer and his wife Patti of Sidney, Montana, one sister, Judy Hoge and her husband Mel of Lewistown, Montana, nine grandchildren; Becky McDonald, Tyler Kortan, Russell Kortan, Celeste

Johnson, Celina Johnson, Kayleen Searer, Jaycee Searer, Taylor Searer and Grant Searer, two great grandchildren; Shariece McDonald-Hill and Jordan Kortan. Remembrances and condolences may be shared with the family at: www.silvernale-silhafuneralhome.com

Tribute Wall

“ Doris Searer

December 07, 2022 at 04:10 PM