Dorothy was born on February 9, 1931 in Glendive, the daughter of Louis and Gladys (Grey) Lardy. She was raised and educated in Glendive where she attended Dawson County High School graduating with the class of 1949. Dorothy met the love of her life, Lloyd "Bud" Adams at the Uptown Theater while he was attending the "Buck Rogers" matinee. She and Bud were married on July 3, 1948 in Glendive. Together they had three boys: Andy, Walt, and Tim. Dorothy was proud to be a mother raising three sons and supported their enthusiasm in the many activities they pursued. Dorothy was a wonderful cook, loved sewing, quilting, square dancing, and traveling in the Motor home with Bud. Dorothy especially enjoyed spending quality time with family and friends. Mom had a great sense of humor and shared many laughter-filled times with her family. She always looked forward to her Friday salon/lunch dates with her sister, Lois as they could catch up on the week's soap operas and family. Dorothy was always willing to help with the grandkids at the drop of a hat. Dorothy was preceded in death by her parents, Louis and Gladys. Survivors include her loving husband, Bud of Glendive; sons, Tim (Marcy) Adams of Glendive, Andy (Kari) Adams of Billings, Montana, and Walt (Marlene) Adams of Marinette, Wisconsin; sister, Lois Kurtz of Glendive; brothers, Glen "Buck" (Grace) Lardy of Billings, and Neil (Dorothy) Lardy of Rancho Palos Verdes, California; ten grandchildren; ten great grandchildren, and numerous nieces and nephews.
