

Edith Norby

November 4, 1941 - February 5, 2021

Edith Elizabeth (Lewis) Norby was born on November 4, 1941 to Clyde Lewis and Zina (Lowe) Lewis in Richland County, Montana.

She grew up in the Elmdale, Montana area. Edith attended school in the Fairview, Montana area. She enjoyed growing up on the farm with her brother, Benny Lewis.

In the late 1940's Edith's father was diagnosed with MS, so they traveled to Washington State research center and Arizona for warmer winters. Edith had a sad loss when her father passed in 1953.

On August 30, 1956, Edith was united in marriage to Leonard Norby in Fairview. After their marriage they made their home on the farm in the Yellowstone Valley, east of Fairview for 41 years.

Edith enjoyed dancing with her husband and traveling with their best friends Earl and Barb Reidle. She also enjoyed being outdoors in the sun and on the lake

She drove beet truck for 30 years and worked at Johnson Hardware for 25 years as the "Paint Lady."

Edith passed on February 5, 2021 at the Wibaux County Nursing Home.

Surviving her are her sons, Leonard (Gordyne) Norby, Jr. of Billings, Montana and Gary (Shelly deceased) Norby of Sidney, Montana; her daughter, Connie (Kim) Kilroy of Dalton, Georgia; grandchildren, James (Tina) Hehn, Josh Norby, Amanda (Peter) Forsberg, Elizabeth (David) Minter, Matthew Norby, Casey Kilroy, Ivana (Mike) Lundsted, Shelby (Cory) Hruska, and Cameron Hughes; great-grandchildren, Mercedes Hehn, Trey Lunsted, Haily Lunsted, Taylor Lunsted, and Taryn Lunsted; great, great-grandchildren, Leonardo Cole and Dimitri Strawser; and brother, Benjamin Lewis of Laurel, Montana.

She was preceded in death by her parents; husband, Leonard Norby; son, Scott Norby; daughter-in-law, Shelly Norby; grandson, Matthew Norby; and great, great-granddaughter, Yui Cole.
