

Edward "Sonny" Rushing, Jr.

December 14, 1944 - October 16, 2013

Edward "Sonny" Earl Rushing, Jr., age 68, passed away on Monday, October 7, 2013 at his home in Glendive, Montana. A memorial service will be held at 2:00 P.M. on Wednesday, October 16, 2013 at the First Baptist Church SBC in Glendive. Silvernale-Silha Funeral Home has been entrusted with the arrangements. Sonny was born on December 14, 1944 in San Francisco, California, a son of Edward Rushing, Sr. and Yolanda "Ann" Broock. He was raised and educated in San Francisco and following his high school education he worked odd jobs as a handyman until enlisting in the United States Army. Sonny served his country for twenty-one years until he retired after receiving his honorable discharge. It was during this time that he was blessed with three children, Joseph from his first marriage and John and Debra from his second marriage. After retiring from the military, Sonny continued to work odd jobs in the California area until he moved to Glendive in 2003 where he had resided until the time of his death. Sonny had many hobbies including hunting, fishing, and watching TV. He especially loved old western shows, and mostly those with John Wayne. Sonny was known for his big heart and he enjoyed helping people when they needed it. He was preceded in death by his father, Edward Rushing, Sr.; step-father, Doyle Norman; and niece, Julia Rushing. Sonny is survived by his three children, Joseph Blackstar of Sacramento, California, John Rushing of Wilmington, North Carolina and Debra Dean of Tucson, Arizona; mother, Ann Norman of Dekalb, Texas; three grandchildren, Desiree Dean, Tyler Rushing and Deana Dean; eleven brothers and sisters and numerous nieces and nephews. Remembrances and condolences may be shared with the family at: www.silvernale-silhafuneralhome.com.
