Lore was born on September 24, 1923 in Knapsack-Koeln, Germany the daughter of Erich and Elizabeth (Koch) Foelsing. She was raised and educated in Knapsack-Koeln. On July 30, 1949 Lore married Wilhelm H. "Bill" Schlieper in Essen, Germany. The couple moved to Schloss-Holte, Germany, where they lived for 3 years and where son U.B. was born. The family immigrated to America through Ellis Island, October 1952. Upon reaching the United States they lived in Brainerd, Minnesota, where son Detlef was born. The family moved to Billings, Montana and Bothel, Washington, with Williams work as a Material Manager for Northern Pacific Railroad and Burlington Northern Railroad. While living in Bothel, William passed away. Lore returned to Glendive in 1993, to be closer to her son and grandchildren, she had resided there since. Lore's hobbies included gardening, flower arranging, needlework and collecting stamps, coins and rocks. She was a member of the Our Savior Lutheran Church, The Friends of the Library, The Gallery, Friends of Makoshika and the Garden Club where she served as president for many years. As part of the Garden Club she enjoyed caring for the plants and flowers at the library, the Welcome to Glendive sign and at the Makoshika Visitor Center. Lore loved to travel, exploring much of the western United States and Germany with her cousin, Liesel. Her grandchildren will especially remember holidays at grandma's house, the wonderful food she made for the family and her keen sense of competition at board and card games. It was hard to beat grandma! She was preceded in death by her parents and her husband, Bill. Her memory lives on in her two sons, U. B. Schlieper and his wife Sylvia, of Westhope, North Dakota and Detlef Schlieper and his wife Laura of Kalispell, Montana; six grandchildren, Erich, Kristofer, Lindsey, Alisha, Lore - Beth and Lonnie Redstar; two great grandchildren Aurora and Travis.
