

Elizabeth "Beth" Lang Czywczynski

December 6, 1949 - July 10, 2021

Elizabeth "Beth" (Lang) Czywczynski, age 71, of Jordan, Minnesota, formerly of Beach, North Dakota passed away peacefully at Lutheran Home Medical Facility in Belle Plaine, Minnesota after a valiant battle with cancer and Parkinson's disease. Mass of Christian Burial will be held at 11:00 am on Saturday, July 31, 2021 at St. John's Catholic Church in Beach with Father Dan Berg officiating. Rite of Committal will take place at St. John's Catholic Cemetery. Silha Funeral Home of Beach has been entrusted with the arrangements.

Beth was born on December 6, 1949 in Beach to Harold and Mary Ethel (Gilman) Lang. She graduated from Beach High School in 1967. After graduation, she attended Dickinson State University.

Beth was united in marriage to Allen Czywczynski on September 25, 1970 in Beach. She and Allen were blessed with three sons, Paul, Mark and Greg. From their marriage until the late 70s, they owned and operated a farm in Gascoyne, North Dakota. From then until 1983, they owned and operated the Mountain View Campground in Spearfish, South Dakota.

Shortly after Allen and Beth divorced in 1985, Beth moved to Prior Lake, Minnesota. Her main work experience included accounting positions for several lumber companies. Beth met her companion, Dan Cahill in 1997 and they remained together until her death.

Beth was happiest when she was caring for Dan's horses, reading a mystery novel or watching a Twins game. She never forgot a birthday and had a knack for sending cards that always arrived on the person's actual birthday.

Beth will be missed by her companion, Dan Cahill; sons, Paul (Heather) Czywczynski, Greg (Barb) Czywczynski, and Mark (Shantel) Czywczynski; her grandchildren, Catelyn, Grace, Cody, Memphis, Layla, Brayden, and Jay Czywczynski; sisters, Rosemary (Jon) Dahl and Kathy (Jack) Maus; sister-in-law, Diane Lang; brother-in-law, Gary Ross; and many nephews and nieces. Beth was preceded in death by parents, Harold and Mary Ethel Lang; sister, Maria Ross and brothers, Neil Lang and Hal Lang, and ex-husband, Allen Czywczynski.
