

Elizabeth Anna Hand

June 4, 1987 - December 9, 2021

Elizabeth Hand, 34, passed away on December 9th, 2021, in Glendive, Montana from an accident overdose.

Originally from Pascoag, RI, Liz made the brave choice of leaving her life in New York to travel 2000 miles away to be with her family in an effort to fight her addictions. Liz was a warrior against the most formidable of opponents. Unfortunately, addiction won the war. Drugs told her they would take her sorrows away but they didn't tell her they would tear her life apart, take away her sparkle and continue to devastate until they finally take her life. She did not want to leave this world but rather longed for a life without pain.

Liz used the strength she had left to make the lives of those around her entertaining. Her constant use of humor and compassion always shined through. She could often be found at Wallum Lake which she described as the one place where she felt true inner peace.

Liz is survived by her children, James Lubas, and Jason Balalaos, her siblings, Jonathan Hand, wife Sabrina, and nephew Dolan, Johnston, RI, Rebecca Hand, fiancée Calvin and the puppies, Glendive, MT, Marie (Trudo) Hand and niece Grace Hand, Cary, NC, her parents, Joyce (Lemay) and Timothy Hand, Glendive MT and her partner Bernard Killingbeck, NY. She is also survived by countless other supportive family members and friends.

Services are postponed at this time and the family requests others take time to celebrate her life in their own special way. Liz wished to spend eternity at the lake of her youth. Her ashes will be spread at Wallum Lake on a later date.

Thank you to all those who have provided her unconditional support over the years. Special thanks to Tracey and the team/residents of Prairie Hills. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to Community Gate Prairie Development Center, 313 West Valentine Street, Glendive, MT 59330, 406-377-2072. Silha Funeral Home of Glendive has been entrusted with the arrangements. Remembrances and condolences can be shared with the family at: www.silhafuneralhomes.com.

Liz does not want us to cry for her, but rather fight for her and others like her who have been captivated by this siren song.

“ *Tim and Joyce, and family,
So sorry to hear of Elizabeth's passing. You are all in our thoughts and prayers. The write up in the paper was so well written. Sharing from your hearts and the struggle Elizabeth went through was sad, but I admire the honesty and hope it helps others in the same struggle. We think of you often and miss seeing you from our deck. Hope you are enjoying Montana and your home despite this terrible tragedy.

“ Thank you for your bravery to share your loved one's battle to find peace. You are remarkable for understanding her live and struggles need to be heard and the devastation that drugs will do to one's well being as well as their loved ones.

You are in my prayers and positive thoughts to be strong for her children and loved ones.
