Emily was born October 10, 2008, in Sandpoint, Idaho, the daughter of Gene and Nicole (Gebhardt) Alexander of Noxon, Montana. She was a beloved daughter, niece, and granddaughter. Emily was the kind of child that every parent wants. She was quiet, adorably cute, cuddly, and very mischievous. She loved having her picture taken or being video taped. Everyone that came into contact with her over these last months said that they will never forget her. She was a blessed and loved little angel who will always and forever have a place in the hearts of the people she touched. Emily fought long and hard during these last five months. She looked death in the face and came back from it. She was a fighter until the end. Emily always had a smile on her face and a twinkle in her eye. She was a happy baby. She was her mother's pride and joy and the love of her daddy's life. She can never be replaced and will always be loved and missed by everyone whom she met. Emily had something special about her, and if you got the chance to meet her, she always left an incredible impression on you. Emily was preceded in death by her grandfather, Eugene Alexander; and her great-grandmother, Elsie Mae Gebhardt. Emily is survived by her parents, Gene and Nicole Alexander of Wibaux; her maternal grandparents, Tami and Marv Gebhardt; her paternal grandmother, Jill Walker; her paternal great-grandparents, AJ and Mary Lou Alexander; her maternal great-grandparents, James and Veronica Witkowski and Virgil Gebhardt; her uncles: AJ, Danny, Johnathan, Dana and Veneso; her aunts: April, Nikki, Jessi, Stevie, and Heather; and numerous cousins.
