Erwin was born on July 2, 1931 in Fallon, Montana the son of Gottlieb and Lydia (Schock) Lasse. Erwin grew up on the family farm in the Buffalo Rapids Irrigation Project 20 miles southwest of Glendive. He attended school thru the 8th grade at Yale School, just a couple miles from the farm. Erwin married Verna Kaul, the love of his life, on March 29, 1953 in Glendive. Together they bought a farm just a few miles from where he grew up and that is where they raised their six children.

He worked a couple different jobs and eventually ended up working for BNSF on the track maintenance crew for 25 years, where he retired. After Erwin and Verna retired they took numerous vacations and trips from coast to coast. Erwin loved to farm, he especially loved to plow and would sit in a tractor all day, well into his 80's. He was extremely proud that the 4th generation is on Farm Unit 52, the unit he and Verna purchased in 1953. He was a devoted husband and a loving father, grandfather, and great grandfather.

My sympathies to all of you Lassle kids. Of course, I think first of my friend and classmate Cindi. But I remember big sis Candy, little brother Chet, and little sister, Crystal. Did I remember you correctly? I hope I didn't forget anyone. Both of your parents are gone now, and sometimes our parents are the glue that holds us together. My parents are now (recently) both gone, too, but we have promised each other that we will stick together. I hope you guys will, too. I am so sorry for your present pain, but am hoping your grief will turn into wonderful memories that will pop up and surprise you when you need them most.
