

George Klick

July 19, 1959 - January 17, 2012

George Klick, age 52, of Beach, North Dakota, passed away on Friday, January 13, 2012, at St. Joseph's Hospital in Dickinson, North Dakota. Visitation will be held from 1:00 P.M. until 2:00 P.M. on Tuesday, January 17, 2012 at the Silvernale-Silha Funeral Home in Beach. Funeral services will be held at 2:00 P.M. on Tuesday, January 17, 2012 in the Chapel of the Silvernale-Silha Funeral Home in Beach, with Reverend Ron Hodson of Calvary Fellowship Church in Dickinson, North Dakota, officiating. Silvernale-Silha Funeral Home of Beach has been entrusted with the arrangements. George was born on July 19, 1959 in San Diego, California, the son of George and Betty (Mulvaney) De Santiago. He was raised and educated in Bard, California, where he attended Sampasqual High School. George moved to Beach, North Dakota, in May of 2011, from Arkansas, where he had spent most of his adult life. After arriving in Beach, he worked at Doubloons Restaurant and later for Prairie Lumber Company in Beach. George enjoyed playing guitar and the drums, and because of his love of animals, he was called "the Dog Whisperer." All who knew George realized he was a loving and caring man, a wonderful brother and good friend. George was preceded in death by his parents. Survivors include his brother, Edward De Santiago of Elwood, Kansas, his sisters Karen Helms of Newark, Ohio, Ruth Morigeau of Pablo, Montana, and Isabella Anderson and her husband Mike McDonald of Beach; he is also survived by his fiancée, Angelia Crews of Beach.
