George Carl Mitchell, 88, of Glendive, Montana passed away on Thursday, April 13, 2023, at the Glendive Medical Center. George was born on January 27, 1935, at a coal mine in a dynamite shack near Savage to his parents John and Drusilla (Sharbono) Mitchell. He attended the Burns Creek country school. George began working in the mine at the age of 12 and at the age of 14 he delivered coal into town. At the age of 15, after his brother Jack's tragic death, he left home. George enlisted in the Army at the age of 18. He had many stories to tell about his days in the service. Upon his return, he married his long-time sweetheart Berniece V. Holzworth on December 30th, 1955. To this marriage they were blessed with two sons Clint and Perry. George spent his life working in the oilfield and construction. In 1968 Mitchell Brother's Inc. was formed by George and his two brothers Keith and Terry. Berniece passed away from cancer in 1991. He married Betty Gardener Shaw in June of 1993.

George read his Bible every day and was an avid reader. He always got a laugh out of reading the McManus series and especially enjoyed reading historical and nonfiction literature. When it came to Trivia, everyone wanted to be on his team. George was great at remembering facts and dates. George also enjoyed dancing and square dancing with his wife Berniece was an enjoyable night out. His hobbies included working with agates and George's imagination guided him to create art out of scrap metal. One of his major accomplishments was learning how to fly and receiving his pilot's license. George enjoyed life every day and he will be missed.

George is survived by his wife Betty; sons Clint (Tamara) and Perry (Denise) Mitchell; granddaughters Sara Mitchell and Marie (Jake) Reddick; Great grandsons Gavin and Thomas Reddick; five siblings, Keith (Marcia) Mitchell, Donna Houck, Lee Lindsey, Carol Stedman, and Terrance (Jean) Mitchell; and numerous nieces and nephews.

George was preceded in death by his parents John and Drusilla (Dessie); his wife Berniece; brother John (Jack) Mitchell and sister Marlene Buckingham; and brothers-in-laws: Dave Buckingham, Dean Houck, Sidney Stedman, and Jack Lindsey.

“ My Uncle George always had a sheepish grin and was ready to tease a smile out of anyone. He represented love and family. I have so many memories with him and Aunt Bernice as well as times spent with he and Betty. I will cherish my memories and I will love and miss him dearly! Until we meet in Heaven! Rest in peace to a very special man. Love you Uncle George!
